Brief description

This 196 m² plot in Benijófar offers a practical opportunity to build a residential property in a well-established neighborhood of Alicante province. The plot is designated for residential use with urban planning allowing construction up to ground floor plus two additional stories, providing flexibility for a townhouse or a family home with a basement.

The plot has direct ground floor access, facilitating straightforward construction and future entry. Its rectangular shape fits neatly within a row of similar plots, suggesting a quiet, community-oriented setting.
