Brief description

Constructed in 1950, the property presents a solid foundation ready for renovation, allowing you to tailor the home to your preferences while preserving its original character. Inside, the layout includes two bedrooms and one bathroom, providing essential living spaces suitable for a small family or as a holiday home.

The single-floor design ensures easy access throughout, and the home's straightforward structure offers flexibility for redesign or extension. The villa's outdoor space is modest but practical, with a garden plot that can be adapted for various uses, such as a small terrace or green area.
