Brief description

Set within a gated community in Orihuela on the Costa Blanca, this new-build villa offers direct views over a frontline golf course, combining a tranquil setting with practical luxury. The villa includes three bedrooms and two bathrooms, with the master bedroom benefiting from an ensuite bathroom and built-in wardrobes.

The partially fitted kitchen opens into the living area, designed to maximize natural light and ease of movement. Additional rooms include a home office, supporting modern working needs, while air conditioning and heating ensure comfort year-round.
